

SCHORLARSHIP APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in scholarship funding here at Central China Normal University Wollongong Joint Institute (JI). Please note that scholarship funding is limited and we strongly encourage prospective students to consider the entire cost of their education when planning to fund their desired programs.

JI Scholarship Aid

This is the only opportunity you will have to indicate your interest in scholarships for the entire duration of your academic program. We encourage all applicants to answer "yes" to this question if they wish to be considered for scholarships during the course of their period of study. By answering "no" to this question you will not be considered for any scholarship aid offered by the Institute.

Do you wish to be considered for Scholarship Aid at CCNU-UOW Joint Institute?

☐ Yes ☐ No

Are you an alumnus/alumna of CCNU or UOW?

☐ Yes ☐ No

- ✓ Have you made any scholarly presentations in the past, or are you scheduled to give a scholarly presentation in the future? If yes, please provide the name and dates of the conference, as well as the title of your presentation and any other pertinent details.

- ✓ Have you had any publications accepted or published before, or do you have pending publications for the near future? If yes, please provide the details of the journal, your article, and the date of publication.

- ✓ Have you worked or volunteered in your anticipated program of study? If yes, please provide the details (e.g. teaching, event support, and other jobs).

- ✓ Have you been active in your anticipated field of study in some other way? If yes, please provide details (e.g. organization memberships, advocacy work, etc.).

- ✓ If there are other pertinent aspects of your previous academic work and/or work you plan on doing in the future that you would like to share, please feel free to add this information.

- ✓ Please identify any special circumstances for consideration that pertain to your application for scholarship (i.e. special family needs or responsibilities, unemployment, extreme job demands/time commitments, unexpected financial loss, and/or any other unusual recurring expenses or related burdens).